

List of members of the Working Group

Yoichi Funabashi

Program director, the Independent Investigation Commission on the Japanese Government's Response to COVID-19

Funabashi is chairman of the Asia Pacific Initiative. Formerly editor-in-chief of the Asahi Shimbun, he is a member of the International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS) Advisory Council. His books include "What is a think tank?" (2019).

Working Group members

Akihisa Shiozaki

Shiozaki is a partner lawyer with Nagashima Ohno & Tsunematsu. His practice areas include risk and crisis management and corporate governance. He was a working group member for the Independent Investigation Commission on the Fukushima Daiichi Nuclear Power Station Disaster. (Chief examiner; Part I, Chapter 1, Part II, Chapter 5 and 9, Part III, Chapter 2 and 9, and Part IV)

Mitsuyoshi Urashima

Urashima is a pediatrician and professor of Jikei University School of Medicine. A graduate of Harvard School of Public Health, his main fields of research include oncology, allergy and extraordinary disaster management. (Chief examiner; Part I, Chapter 1, Part II, Chapter 8, and Part IV)

Yoshiko Hashimoto

Hashimoto is editor-in-chief of m3.com at M3, Inc. The graduate of the Department of Biological Sciences, the University of Tokyo Graduate School of Science has engaged in reporting, writing and editing articles on medical issues for many years.

(Deputy chief examiner; Part I, Chapter 1, Part II, Chapter 7, Part III, Chapter 3, 4, 5 and 6, and Part IV)

Tsubasa Watanabe

Watanabe is an associate with Nagashima Ohno & Tsunematsu. His main practice areas include crisis management, response to scandals, corporate governance, legal affairs for venture firms. (Deputy chief examiner; Part I, Chapter 2, Part II, Chapter 2 and 8, Part III, Chapter 1 and 3)

Keishi Abe

Abe is a visiting fellow with the Asia Pacific Initiative and a medical doctor. Having obtained the master of science in foreign service at Georgetown University School of Foreign Service, Abe has worked on crisis management policy for the Japanese government and United Nations organizations. (Part III, Chapter 1, 2, 3 and 9)

Goro Umeyama

Umeyama is a consultant specialized in disaster prevention and crisis management. Formerly a working group member for the Independent Investigation Commission on the Fukushima Daiichi Nuclear Power Station Accident, Umeyama has co-authored "Japan's Worst-case Scenario: The Nine Blind Spots" (Shinchosha) and other books. (Part II, Chapter 1 and 3, and Part III, Chapter 7)

Chizuru Suga

Suga is head of the Centre for the Fourth Industrial Revolution Japan, World Economic Forum. She has obtained MBA from the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania. (Part I, Chapter 2 and Part III, Chapter 8)

Kazuto Suzuki

Suzuki is a professor at University of Tokyo Graduate School of Public Policy. Having obtained Ph.D. on contemporary European studies from the University of Sussex Sussex European Institute, Suzuki specializes in international politics, space policy, science and technology and administrative studies. (Part III, Chapter 1, 2, 3, 5 and 6)

Yosuke Sunahara

Sunahara is a professor at Kobe University Graduate School of Law. He has completed the doctorate course at the Department of Advanced Social and

The Independent Investigation Commission on the Japanese Government's Response to COVID-19: Report on Best Practices and Lessons Learned

International Studies, University of Tokyo Graduate School of Arts and Sciences. His current research interests include local politics and inter-governmental relations in Japan. (Part II, Chapter 1 and Part III, Chapter 7)

Kayo Takuma

Takuma is a professor of the faculty of law at the Tokyo Metropolitan University. Having completed the doctorate course at the Department of Advanced Social and International Studies, University of Tokyo Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, she specializes in international politics and international organization. (Part II, Chapter 2, 9 and Part III, Chapter 1 and 9)

Yoshiki Hiruma

Hiruma is vice president at Development Bank of Japan Inc. Having completed the master's course at the Department of Civil Engineering, University of Tokyo Graduate School of Engineering, Hiruma is a Young Global Leader of the World Economic Forum, and specializes in disaster prevention, crisis management and finance. (Part I, Chapter 2, Part II, Chapter 4, 5 and 6, and Part III, Chapter 8)

Shinsuke Muto

Muto is a medical doctor, president of Tetsuyu Medical Institute Corporation and chairman of Integrity Healthcare Co. A director of the Asia Pacific Initiative, Muto has completed the doctorate course at University of Tokyo Graduate School of Medicine and obtained INSEAD Executive MBA. (Part II, Chapter 4, 5 and 7, and Part III, Chapter 4)

Kenta Isshiki

Isshiki is an associate lawyer with Nagashima Ohno & Tsunematsu. His main practice areas include capital market, crisis management and scandal response. (Part II, Chapter 3 and Part III, Chapter 5)

Takeho Ujino

Ujino is an associate lawyer with Nagashima Ohno & Tsunematsu and attorney at law (Japan and New York). He has graduated from UCLA School of Law (LL.M.) and is a Global MBA candidate at IE Business School. His main practice areas include financial transaction and corporate governance. (Part II, Chapter 7 and Part III, Chapter 4)

Takumi Naito

Naito is an associate lawyer with Nagashima Ohno &

Tsunematsu. He has previously worked for Dentsu Inc. and his main practice areas include crisis management and scandal response. (Part II, Chapter 4 and 6, and Part III, Chapter 8)

Tomohiro Hen

Hen is a partner lawyer with Nagashima Ohno & Tsunematsu and attorney at law in New York. He has graduated from Duke University School of Law (LL.M.) and his main practice areas include crisis management and scandal response. (Part II, Chapter 1 and Part III, Chapter 7)

Yu Yuasa

Yuasa is an associate lawyer with Nagashima Ohno & Tsunematsu. His main practice areas include crisis management, scandal response, corporate governance and export control. (Part II, Chapter 5, 6 and Part III, Chapter 6)

Takashi Otsuka

Otsuka is a science journalist and formerly head of the science and medical department of the Asahi Shimbun and president of Asahi Shimbun America, Inc. He served as editor for the "Fukushima Daiichi Nuclear Power Station Disaster: Investigating the Myth and Reality" and "Anatomy of Yoshida Testimony" reports. (Editor of the report)

Yoshiyuki Sagara

Sagara is a fellow for the Asia Pacific Initiative. He has previously worked at a private-sector company, International Organization for Migration (IOM) Sudan Office, United Nations Department of Political Affairs, and as assistant director for the Second North Asia Division of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. (Part II, Chapter 2, 8 and 9 and Part III, Chapter 2)

Jun Mukoyama

Mukoyama is a fellow for the Asia Pacific Initiative. She holds master of public administration from Harvard University John F. Kennedy School of Government. (Part III, Chapter 8)